

The Analytical Times

DECEMBER 2018

Welcome

Welcome to the December issue of The Analytical Times. This month we introduce you to eResults, the best way to get results instantly no matter where you are, as well as our opening ours over the holiday season.

If you have any questions regarding this newsletter or have a suggestion for something you would like to see featured, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Karen Cooper
Marketing Assistant

eResults, lab results at your fingertips

Gribbles Labnet clients can access laboratory results, current and historical, at your convenience day or night, using either a personal computer or dedicated app for smartphones and tablet devices.

How does it work?

eResults is available free of charge to all Gribbles Labnet clients. Users are provided with a username and password, enabling them to access the eResults service on their preferred device. Once logged in, users can access all results relating to their business via a simple to use search function. From within eResults, Gribbles Labnet laboratory reports can be viewed on screen, emailed, printed or saved to another location.

How do I access eResults?

Register for eResults and access via the website <https://eresults.gribbles.co.nz> or download the app from the AppStore or Google play (app name: Gribbles Vet eResults).

To find out more about eResults and the many ways in which Gribbles Labnet can assist your business, contact your local laboratory or speak to your business development manager.
